If you enjoy the sport of snowmobiling in Nebraska, you are not alone. There are approximately 15 local clubs around the state. Since 1976, the Nebraska State Snowmobile Association (NSSA) has helped to preserve existing trails across the country, and lobbied on behalf of snowmobile-friendly legislation. Our efforts continue, and your support would be greatly appreciated.

With your paid membership, you'll periodically receive information about snowmobile-related legislation issues and potential areas environmentalists are trying to close to snowmobiles, as well as upcoming NSSA event details.
